

The IEEE Photonics Society has been strong in areas where scientific advances are ready to convert into useful functionality & technology that impacts society, i.e. the bleeding edge where science is really put to use.

Proposed and approved at the May 2011 Board of Governors meeting, the new Photonics Society tag line has been incorporated to the existing logo.

Available in high resolution formats. Please contact the Photonics Society for usage guidelines and distribution. PhotonicsSociety@ieee.org
